DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS

The photograph shows a student display board for the 'DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY'. The board is a dark, rectangular surface with a light-colored border. At the top center, a white rectangular sign with a black border contains the text 'DEPARTMENT OF' on the first line and 'PHILOSOPHY' on the second line in a bold, sans-serif font. Below this sign, the board is filled with a collage of papers. On the left side, there are several sheets of paper with handwritten text in various colors (red, blue, orange, green). In the center, there is a drawing of a person's face, a colorful logo with the letter 'K' in a stylized font, and a table with multiple columns and rows of text. On the right side, there are more sheets of paper with handwritten text. The overall arrangement is a mix of text and visual elements, typical of a student project display.
